I enrolled in the Oklahoma School of Photography to gain a better understanding of photography and to learn how to take quality photographs. My training included theory and practical hands-on experience in a wide variety of photographic techniques that incorporated both traditional film and digital media. I now have a greater understanding of how composition, contrast and color all work together to produce excellent images.

Photography, to me, is one of the most beautiful art forms and I am excited about the possibilities. I would really enjoy showing and selling my work in galleries or art shows. The value photography holds for me is the happiness of being able to do what I love most and share it with others.

Bold and sometimes controversial is how I would describe my photographs. I am not afraid to experiment with colors or subject matter. I want my work to leave lasting impressions and evoke emotions in the viewer; whether they love it or hate it, they will remember it.
